

Please let things stand as they are. As an independent business owner I want to be able to make my own choice. We do not need help and certainly do not need continued interference. Let the free market reign. If you really think that Bell is "non-dominant" you are sadly mistaken.